Dedication

John R. Gibbud

We, the graduating class of 1968, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. John R. Gibbud, our science instructor, who, by his high objectives has been a great inspiration to us through our four years at West Rutland High School.

We thank you, Mr. Gibbud, for all you have done for us, and we sincerely hope that you will acknowledge this yearbook dedication as a humble token of our appreciation.

Superintendents Message

Dear Members of the Class of 1968

You are members of a class which is involved in the making of history, like it or not.

New ideas are testing themselves against the old in fields of medicine, space, religion, war, economics, and education, to name some of them.

The world in general and the particular place where you find yourself needs intelligent and determined participants in these battles, large and small. We hope and pray that your experience in the West Rutland Schools will, with your native character, assist you in the testing which life has placed before each of us in turn.

Good Luck!

Geoffrey Graham
Superintendent

Principal's Message

Throughout your four years of high school each of you has been involved in the activities--curricular and co-curricular of the school. As you enter the world and continue your life furthering your education, enter the employment market or serve in the armed forces of your country you will have many opportunities to realize involvement in many new and interesting experiences. I sincerely hope you will use the values, attitudes and knowledge you have attained in exercising sound judgement throughout your life.

To the members of the graduating Class of 1968--I earnestly wish all the success that is duly yours and the best of luck in years to come!

Class Song

Steps lead us down,
Down a path of accomplishment.
A beginning of inch
Of development in the lives of ours.

Time has called us on forward,
Forward to unlimited skies.
A broader interpretation of life is ours
And onward we must go.

What we've left behind is grand,
What lies ahead is an unlimited world.
Of accomplishment and success,
All due to our past.

Though these years are past,
And a new life lies ahead,
Our minds are broader now,
Because of these loving halls.

Though we are not leaving with gratitude,
But now with due courage and fortitude,
Bestowed upon us one and all,
From these beloved halls.

Jan Rousseau
Robert Drzewiczewski

Class Poem

When we first opened these school doors,
And gazed mysteriously at those polished floors,
Our hearts were young, our minds were small,
Now we have grown, gratitude us due to all.

Who in four years have instilled in us greater knowledge,
Of our world, this we must indeed acknowledge.
That alone, all would not have been accomplished,
All who have assisted us, we deeply cherish.

For it is now our time to depart from this house of learning.
We can leave peacefully now with only our hearts yearning,
For a return of four years to share our thoughts and deeds,
To future develop, our heavenly seeds.

GORILLA MONSOON JOKE

There was once a family, who had to make a trip down a river deep within the African jungle. Well, the river, was sort of rough and that's all the family, made up of a husband, wife and a small newborn babe, which families are usually made up of, had was a small rowboat and the husband was tipping the bottle. So when he got drunk enough, and this, coupled with his wife's constant nagging, finally drove the boat unto the rocks. Well luckily an island was nearby, so the wife threw the kid in a basket and as you always see in the movies, the parents died and the kid floated on to shore. Well, a tiger was perched on the lone tree of the island, and he took in the scene, so when the kid landed on shore, he was taken by the tiger and raised with the rest of the tiger's litter.

Yes, you guessed it, that's how he came to be known as GORILLA MONSOON. So after approximately thirty years living with the tiger, the tiger died and he had to leave and find a new home on the island. Well, by now he had the tiger's scent, and the rest of the animals didn't like this, so when he walked through the jungle for the first time he was attacked by a rhinoceros. He pulled out his pistol and killed him.

AUDIENCE: But where did he get the pistol, if he grew up with the tiger for thirty years?
ANSWER: For his sixteenth birthday.

So he kept on shooting animals until he met a gorilla. He took out his pistol, but something happened and the gorilla crushed him.

AUDIENCE: How come he didn't shoot him?
ANSWER: He ran out of shells!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

CHARLES: Hey, Clyde, I head a couple of good jokes. Want to hear a couple of dillies?
CLYDE: Yeh, man.
CHARLES: Dilly . . . Dilly!!!!!!

Why did 27 people leave the famous Delmonico's Restaurant in Los Angeles on June 24, 1967, around noon time?

Because they had finished eating!

How did the Guinea break his back raking leaves?

He fell out of the tree!

If you were surrounded by 10 tigers, 15 rhinoceri, and 20 gorillas, how would you escape?

Stop the merry-go-round and get off.

Class History

The day was the 7th of September; the year 1964; the occasion, the first day of high school. Twenty-three girls and twenty-nine boys nervously paced the halls of West Rutland High School. After the bell rang, Mr. Timbers called us into study hall, assigned us seats by alphabetical order, and passed out our freshmen class schedules. We stayed closely together for the first few weeks, but soon we became accustomed to our new environment.

The newly elected officers were: Nancy Sherowski, President; Maureen Pietryka, Vice-president; Robert Kalinowski, Secretary; and John McGann, Treasurer.

Winter soon arrived and as the band prepared for the Annual Christmas Concert, the glee club practiced under the direction of Miss Bliss.

Our first contribution to the One-Act Plays was "Deep Freeze", with the great freshmen class stars.

Spring soon passed, and the baseball team was provided with several freshmen players.

With the departure of the Class of '64, there was one year behind us and three more years of the same ahead of us. We were now sophomores.

In September, 1965, twenty-three girls and twenty-five boys entered the doors of West Rutland High School with a feeling of pride because we were now sophisticated sophomores.

Miss Stephanie Cramer became the first girls' physical education teacher, and Mrs. Frances Hinchcliff taught us French and English. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Russell were the new business instructors.

The following class officers were elected: Anthony Reczek, President; Lonna Smith, Vice-president; Sharon Bartlett, Secretary; and Thomas Blicharz, Treasurer.

Several boys represented our class on the Junior Varsity basketball team.

Exams came and went before we knew it. Our sophomore year seemed to pass twice as fast as our freshmen year. Our vacation, here, and school ended, we decided to enjoy the summer and rest up for our junior year.

After a much enjoyed summer vacation, we entered W.R.H.S. as "upperclassmen."

Several new teachers joined the staff. Miss Maida Townsend, Mr. Russell Shappy, also our Varsity basketball coach, Mr. Thomas Daley, also our Junior Varsity coach, and Mr. Walter Kane.

Class officers were: President, Tod Kosmider; Vice-president, Anne Marie Jakubowski; Secretary, Robert Kalinowski; and Treasurer, Joseph Orzell.

No sooner were football games over, the basketball season was well underway.

The long winter was broken up by our 1st Winter Carnival. Many juniors worked day and night to complete the snow sculpture, "Fort Courage."

A short lull was followed by annual baseball games. We juniors supported our team by active participation and cheers. Sports, studies, One-Act Plays, band, Student Council activities, the National Honor Society, FBLA, and various clubs kept most of the juniors very active.

Maureen Pietryka and Tony Reczek attended the Youth Citizenship Conference as delegates from W.R.H.S.

Model UN delegates were Arlene Perry and Robert Drzewiczewski.

Maureen Pietryka proudly represented W.R.H.S. at Girls' State. Tony Rezek and David Wallett gave equal representation at Boys' State.

June came and suddenly we realized how soon the dream of being seniors would be fulfilled.

Newly acquired responsibilities rested upon our shoulders as we became seniors. Class officers were: President, Gary Cassidy; Vice-president, Anne Marie Jakubowski; Secretary, Sandra Oscielowski; and Treasurer, Joseph Orzell.

Seven new teachers, Miss Noreen Crowe, Miss Mary Ann Eagan, Mrs. Vaughn Ward, Mr. Kenneth Leonard, Mr. Joseph Salengo, and Mr. George Stomper joined the high school staff.

Class meetings were frequent as plans were made for the yearbook and for graduation.

Under the direction of Mr. Daniel Boone, the senior class spent a most enjoyable day at Expo 67. Also, a project was started--that of renovating the stage in the town hall.

Once again active participation in extracurricular activities, studies, and various duties made the time pass quickly. Sooner than we had anticipated, the time for our Christmas vacation arrived and mid-year exams followed.

Final plans were made for the yearbook which will bring back many cherished memories in future years.

With gratitude in our hearts to all who made our high school years so very worthwhile and memorable, we proudly refer to ourselves as "the class of '68."

Class Will And Testament

We, the graduating class of West Rutland High School, in this year of Our Lord 1968, do ordain, publish, and declare the following to be our last will and testament.

BARBARA ASLIN wills to her sister, Debbie her front seats.
SHARON BARTLETT wills her sister Lori, her love for math. You've got a long way to go!
THOMAS BLICHARZ wills his paper route and Mr. Stompe's German Shepherd to John Rozmus with hopes that he, too, may become a millionaire.
JANET BOUDREAU bequeaths her place on the monitor squad to Judy Cassady. She hopes you will have as much fun "bossing" people around as she did.
MARY BREZNICK wills her seat in P.O.D. to anyone who likes to look out the window.
To Mo Squier, DAVID BURKE wills his skill as a great woodsman.
PAUL CARLSON wills his place in basketball to Dennis Smith. Good Luck, Dennis, in next year's season.
GARY CASSADY wills, to his three little sisters, all the fun that he had in high school.
ROBERT DION wills the bald tires of his Corvette to Beaver Czachor.
To Mike Grabowski, ROBERT DREZEWICZEWSKI wills: his bunny rabbit pajamas, teddy bear sneakers, Captain Kangaroo badge, wolf whistle, two lollipops, a jelly bean, six wheel motorcycle, and a teething ring.
STANLEY DZIUBEK wills Puny Trepanier two empty sloe gin bottles and a fake I. D.
BARBARA GILL bequeaths her locker and a typewriter to her sister, Ann Marie.
ALBERT GRABOWSKI wills that everything he owns should go to his loved ones.
THERESA GREMBOWICZ wills all the fun she had on Marble Street during high school to her sister, Helchia.
EDWARD HANSON wills his inherited ability to hit trailer trucks to anyone who thinks he can do it.
SHIRLEY HEPBURN wills all the long hours she spent studying to her brother, Donald. Study, Skeet, it pays off.
CAROLINE HUBBARD wills Fran Hubbard her jokes to tell in the library as she did. Ask Barb Aslin, Linda Marchinkowski, and Barb Gill about it.
ANNE MARIE JAKUBOWSKI wills to her sister, her use of the car with hopes that Regina has as much fun with it as she did.
To Dickie Johnson, LARRY JOHNSTON wills good luck in the future.
ROBERT KALINOWSKI wills all the studying he's done in the past four years to Mike Grabowski and "Sapphire." That should give you a lot of free time.
MARY KAYE KENNY wills all the fun and happy moments she had in her senior year to Colleen Gray and hopes she will have many more next year.
THEODORE KOSMIDER wills, to Dennis Smith, his '59 Chevy and hopes he has better luck with it.
NEAL LINCOLN wills his seat in English class to whoever wants it.
LINDA MARCHINKOWSKI bequeaths her seat in P.O.D. to her brother. Make good use of it.
JOHN McGANN wills to Mike Grabowski, all his "A's" and "B's" but he hopes you don't need them to graduate because there aren't any.
JOSEPH ORZELL wills his skiing abilities to anyone who thinks he can handle them.
MARY JANE OSCIELOWSKI bequeaths her place in the National Honor Society to her sister, Anne, because she wants to come to the initiations.

SANDRA OSCIELOWSKI wills her clean locker to her sister, Joan. Keep it in better shape than she did during your four years at W.R.H.S.
To Ruth Mary Johnston, MARTIN PENDRISS wills his car.
MARY LOU PENDRISS wills her brother Michael happy years in Mr. Boone's history classes.
To Donald Hewitt, ARLENE PERRY wills her place in the band her ability to keep one measure behind Mr. Ianni.
MAUREEN PIETRYKA wills her brother Dick, all the good things in high school because there were sure a lot of them for her.
KATHERINE POTTER wills her long walks home to Bonnie and Karen. Have fun girls.
ANTHONY RECZEK wills Mike Grabowski, Mike Kulig and Bob Kapitan the ability to convince Mr. Spencer on the capabilities of the up-coming Horde teams in the S.V.C. basketball realms.
COREEN REED bequeaths her typewriter to anyone who can put it to good use.
JAN ROUSSEAU wills next year's Yearbook Staff more time, money, and a year's supply of Excedrin.
THOMAS SANKOWSKI wills his Teddy Bear to Big Joe so he won't be lonely anymore.
To Regina Jakubowski, NANCY SHEROWSKI wills more of the fun they used to have on Saturday nights. We really had some fun, didn't we Regina??
JOSEPH SKAZA wills those great days in high school to anyone who will make good use of them.
LONNA SMITH wills all her experiences, both good and bad, and her fun times in high school to her brothers and sisters.
ROBERT SMYRSKI wills his knowledge to anyone who has the power to put it to good use.
CRYSTAL TREPANIER wills her athletic ability to her little brother. Just think, Puny, you will be one of the first five in basketball.
THOMAS TUMIELEWICZ wills all his talents to anyone who wants them.
ROBERT TURNER wills Sanky to the Mental Institution research project in South Africa.
DAVID WALLETT wills his speed and ability to make a good solid block in football to Mike Grabowski.
IRENE WASIK wills her French III book to anyone who enjoys cultural enrichment, a true sense of accomplishment, and wasted period.
LOUISE WEAVER wills her sister, Bonnie, a bullwhip, a chain, and a vocabulary of forceful words in case she has to sit by Mike Matteson on the bus.

Class Presentations

BARBARA ASLIN and LINDA MARCHINKOWSKI--A genuine Daniel Boone hat (made in Japan). Would you ever guess why?
SHARON BARTLETT and IRENE WASIK--a pair of skis to remind you of all the fun on the slopes! Remember when you missed getting off the chairlift???
THOMAS BLICHARZ--A reserved seat at Amsdem's--Tom, so you won't have to run all the time.
JANET BOUDREAU--A wig--it's cheaper to change color this way. And just think, "No muss--no fuss!"
MARY BREZNICK--A professional "frisbee"--you really earned it this summer.
DAVID BURKE--A box of cookies Dave, so you can get a good taste of something good.
PAUL CARLSON--A new car for your long excursion from the sticks to Elaine's.
GARY CASSADY--A bully club to keep the following in order at class meetings: Albert, Tort, Chuck, and Jebbo, and a machine gun in case that doesn't work.
ROBERT DION--A model car that runs without pushing it.
ROBERT DRZEWICZEWSKI--A half dozen class rings so you can pass them all at once. Remember Jeb???
STANLEY DZIUBEK and TONY RECZEK--A muzzle to keep you from biting Wallett--you did almost everything else to him!
BARBARA GILL--A phys. ed. uniform--just so you'll know what one looks like.
ALBERT GRABOWSKI and JOHN McGANN--A road map with complete instructions on how to park. In case you're wondering, we don't mean parallel, friends.
THERESA GREMBOWICZ and CRYSTAL TREPANIER--Two basketballs (deflated). Let's see you sink this one.
EDWARD HANSON--A little black book full of names, addresses, and phone numbers just in case you get lonely.
SHIRLEY HEPBURN--A chair--to help furnish your new home.
CAROLINE HUBBARD and ROBERT SMYRSKI--A pair of stilts to bring you up in the world.
ANNE MARIE JAKUBOWSKI--A book of 101 hairstyles for long hair--hope you can use it.
LARRY JOHNSTON--A toy shovel to remind him of all his hard work in the barn.
ROBERT KALINOWSKI--A battery for quicker starts in the winter.
THOMAS KANTORSKI--A book of phony passes--need we say more?
MARY KAYE KENNY--A joke book Mary Kaye, so you and Sharon will have something to laugh at.
THEODORE KOSMIDER--A pack of blue blades to keep our cassanova free of 5 o'clock peach fuzz!
NEAL LINCOLN--A megaphone to speak through so we'll know you're around.

JOSEPH ORZELL--A bottle of Lady Clairol to see that your hair will stay blonde and shiney.
MARY JANE OSCIELOWSKI--A report card with all U-9's to show you what it's really like.
SANDRA OSCIELOWSKI--Sandy, a minature typewriter to remind you of all the times you spent in the typing room.
MARTIN PENDRISS and MAUREEN PIETRYKA--pause--even your presentation didn't make it on time. Here are two clocks.
MARY LOU PENDRISS--A nose ring to drag Marty to school with you in the morning.
ARLENE PERRY--A moo-cow to add to your collection.
KATHERINE POTTER--A car--so you won't have to walk home from school every day.
COREEN REED--A toy soldier to remind you of a special friend in the Marines.
JEANETTE ROUSSEAU--A pair of miniature roller-skates to remind you of the good times down at the Yea Barn.
THOMAS SANKOWSKI--A miniature Honda to remind you of all the times you rode with Gary.
NANCY SHEROWSKI--A tube of Ultra Bright to give you that bing!!
JOSEPH SKAZA--A seat belt--big enough to go around two people--right Joe??
LONNA SMITH--A nurses' hat to get you started on your future career.
THOMAS TUMIELEWICZ--A report card with all A's on it Bundle, so you'll know what it looks like.
ROBERT TURNER--A miniature football to remind you of your days at Westside.
DAVID WALLETT--A cube of LSD to transport you from Reczek's reach. Best of luck.
LOUISE WEAVER--A punching bag to remind you of all your encounters with the boys at Westside.
